THE NEWS
As Gathered by Our Special Correspondents.
All About the Happenings and Special Events in their Immediate Vicinity.

LA GRANGE.
Jan'y 7, '89.
Repair sidewalks.
Dr. Painter is holding meetings at Belden.
Elder Gray has opened a series of meetings at the Baptist church.
Schools opened to-day with the usual large attendance.
Geo. Elliott, of Bridgeport, spent New Years with his parents.
We are exceedingly glad to hear favorable reports of our young people who are attending college.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Deerfield, Mich., visited friends in town last week. Mrs.
L. was formerly one of our girls, but she has gone the way of the world.
Sons of Veterans formed an organization New Year's night.
Henry Webster and family have moved to Paulding.
J. B. Plumb has gone to Michigan to teach penmanship.
Charles Merriam has returned home from Michigan.
Charles Rawson has returned to his home in Michigan.
The seller was in town last Friday and several of our worthy citizens were sold to the tune of three to ten dollars.
YOURS DRYLY.

SPENCER.
January 7, '89.
Charley Brown will rent his house and lot and move onto the farm owned by Mrs. Damon in Litchfield.
Rev. C. C. Inman has quite a church started seven miles south of Berea and crossed there every other Sunday.

The protracted meetings are fairly attended considering the bad condition of the roads.
Fred Daugherty and Henry Daugherty, of Wellington, made a few short calls in town on New Year's day.
Clyde Foster had an attack of the scarlet fever instead of quinine as was reported last week and quite a number were exposed before the nature of the disease was determined.
School has closed in District No. 5 on account of the fever but no serious prevail-ence of the disease is apprehended.
Harry Daugherty attended the funeral of his classmate, Miss Maud Gott on last Saturday in Wellington.

AMHERST.
January 7, '89.
There was no chiming of wedding bells in our village during the holidays this year.
Mrs. A. Pelton, formerly of this place, now a resident of Ford, Kansas, is a guest at J. B. Durand's.
A. A. Eggleston has sold his house and lot in the village to Chas. Bassett. We understand that Mr. E. intends making his future home in Colorado.
John Bath is adding greatly to the appearance of Quarry street, by putting up a fine dwelling. J. Durand has the contract for the building and work is being done as rapidly as the weather will permit.
Mrs. S. Eagles and her two daughters will visit friends in Medina county this week and next.
Messrs. A. Eggleston, Ed. Durand and Charles Bryant went to the county seat on business last Saturday.
There were no services at the M. E. church yesterday owing to the quarterly meeting at North Amherst.

HUNTINGTON.
Jan'y 7, '89.
Quarterly meeting at the M. E. Church four weeks from last Sabbath. Preaching on the Saturday before at 2 p. m. by the preaching elder.
Mrs. Mary Jones returned last week from a two weeks' visit to her old home in Canal Dover.
Carl Rogers and his wife visited friends in La Grange and Chatham last week.
I was mistaken last week when I said Jerome Pratt had rented his farm to Geo.
Roice. I supposed it was so because "somebody told me so."
Mrs. Martin Sage, who lived for so many years in this place, but who now lives with her daughter, Mrs. James Newton, in Brunswick, Medina county, is slowly failing.
Last week was very quiet, not a birth, marriage, or death that I have heard of.
A good deal of visiting among the young folks. Several from abroad were here to spend the holidays and some who live here came home; by this time they have returned to their schools, and visitors gone home.
Mr. Lorenzo Blocker spent part of last week in Ashland.
Union prayer meeting in the M. E.
Church every night this week. It being the week of prayer.
I hear that Mr. James Rogers fell from his carriage and dislocated his shoulder and that his wife is suffering with neuralgia.
Mrs. Carrie Dirlam is convalescent.

LITCHFIELD.
January 7, '89.
D. Parker has returned from the west and will make his home with his father, L. Parker. We understand that Mr. Parker has secured an insurance agency for Medina county.
A. M. Canfield and family spent a few days last week with friends in Clarksville, Ohio.
Sheriff Nichols and family have taken up their abode in the county boarding house at Medina.
Frank Blanton and wife, of Penfield, were in town last week.
Mrs. Norton is quite sick.
John Kruger, whom all will remember as Byes Canfield's model farm hand and who is now living in Northern Michigan, is visiting in town.
Died at his home in Litchfield, on the night of Friday, January 4, L. M. Strait, aged 60 years. Mr. Strait was a son of Rev. Asa Strait, one of the pioneer settlers of Litchfield and has been most of his life a resident here. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his demise. The funeral is to be on Tuesday.
Last Sunday night Capt. John Raidal went to his barn with his lantern to do his chores. As he was passing behind a yearling colt, the colt kicked the lantern from his hand breaking it and spreading the burning oil in the straw and chaff on the floor. Almost instantly the interior of the barn was enveloped in flames, so rapid was their progress that Mr. Raidal had to run to escape them. The barn with its contents consisting of 4 acres of oats, 11 acres of flax, all unthreshed, tools, three Jersey cows, and a valuable colt was destroyed. We understand that the insurance does not fully cover the loss.

We wish to thank the ENTERPRISE for kindly remembering us on Xmas. You have the best wishes of CARP.

BRIGHTON.
January 7, '89.
Oh, my! what weather.
Hello, new boy in town. Mr. John Linderbolt was made happy last Friday by finding a young son at his house. Give the boys a smoke, John.
Big dance at Mr. Cuswell's last Friday evening.
Mr. L. W. Hart was visiting his daughter at Toledo last week.
Mr. Frank Johnson and wife, of Norwalk, were guests of his brother, Dell Johnson a couple of days last week.
Mr. Wilson Hayes, of Cleveland, is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. P. Rong, who has been at the point of death for the last week, but is now on the gain.
Mr. J. F. Pice while on his way home to Polk, O., last Thursday stopped and gave Mr. Nester a call.
Bond & Day have put an attachment to their feed mill. They will now grind coals and all.
The school house has been overhauled and is ready for use again. School commences there this week.
I don't think that Wellington man ought to give our hedge fence away like he did, as it makes nice shade in the summer.
Miss Alma Griggs, of Wellington, was visiting relatives in town for the past week.
Mr. Edson Converse, of Toledo, was the guest of O. M. Gillett a couple of days last week.
Little boys shouldn't bother the older ones when they are escorting their ladies home from an entertainment, such as getting ahead of them and laying fence-rails in the way. That's not pretty.
Mrs. Wm. Collins and wife, of Clarksville, spent New Years with Mr. Everson and family.
Mr. Tony Hoffmeyer was visiting friends at Cleveland last week.

ROCHESTER.
January 7, '89.
J. F. Skees, Esq., our boss fancy poultry man, just unfolded a package consisting
of an elegant gold-lined silver cup and three fine bronze and gilt medals awarded him for the finest display of pheasants and other fancy fowls at the Cleveland poultry show.
Frank Dagnan, Esq., has advertised a kance at the Hotel De Hackett on the 24th proximo. We are glad to see Frank doing a prosperous business in his new venture.
Dr. T. S. Field has filed an action before Esquire Phelps vs. Newell Knapp for a bill for professional services aggregating $38.
D. Seger, Esq., is visiting Mr. James Horton, of Cleveland. Dorsey Rowland has been engaged by Mr. Horton for his dairy the coming year.
Ladies Baptist Societies meets with Mrs. C. Myers, Thursday this week. All invited.
The election of officers M. E. Sunday-School resulted: M. Goss, Superintendent and Choirster; J. P. Butson, Treasurer; Lew Fisher, Clerk; Clayton Chapman, Librarian; Angie Dyer, Organist.
Reported that Messrs. Horr, Warner &
Co., have absorbed the Wright factory.
"One by one the roses fade." Rev. F. E. Kenyon has been engaged to fill the Baptist pulpit until next April.

PITTSFIELD.
January 7, 1889.
The oyster supper and entertainment at the town hall on New Years eve, was,
notwithstanding a dark night and bad roads, very well attended. The exercises consisting of songs, music, recitation and tableaux were well received and gave general satisfaction. The program was not fully carried out, owing to lack of time, but I suppose what was left out, will be on hand at some time. Net proceeds about $37. Some of the party staid until after midnight to welcome the New
year.
Bob Mills was home from Lorain to spend New Years with his mother.
George Preston, of Oberlin, spent New
Years with his parents.
D. W. Davis started for Texas last week with a car load of young Hereford cattle.
Will be gone some weeks.
There are some changes occurring in the ownership of real estate in town, but I am not sufficiently posted to announce the particulars at present.
Harry Gillett is moving about in the mud with his traction engine and feed cutter, saving horse flesh and horse feed, which is a very good thing to do. M.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.
For a spring medicine and blood-purifier, Arthro-phos-a cannot be equaled.
F. D. Felt.

DIED.
HERSEY.—Of Paralysis of the Heart, William Hersey, aged 64 years. Funeral Saturday, Rev. W. C. Dawson, officiating.
Mrs. Hersey extends thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness.
THOMPSON.—January 3, at the residence of her son-in-law, J. P. Gardner on Barker St., of Painesville, Mrs. Hannah Thompson.
THOMPSON.—Mrs. Thompson was born in Bristol, Ontario co., N. Y., in 1806, and was in her 83d year. Her maiden name was Sleson and she was united in marriage to Dr. Hiram Thompson in 1833, emigrating with him to Ohio in 1844, and since then this county has been her home.
From 1849 to 1861 her husband, who died eleven years ago, represented Lorain county in the Legislature of this State.
Her residence in Lorain county was mostly in Laporte and Grant co. Since the death of her husband she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Gardner, and came to Wellington with her about four years ago.
Brave and self-sacrificing Mrs. Thompson was a worthy helpmate of her husband in the cares and hardships of the medical profession. She was of an unusually hopeful and cheerful disposition, and on the darkest cloud she could always see a silver lining. Nature had endowed her with superior talents, which she industriously cultivated, and it was ever her ambition to intelligently work her way along to good ends. Inspired by a faith that never doubted she could see nothing but a beautiful tomorrow in her earthly life and a happy immortality "over the river." Just before the coming of earthly unconsciousness, when her happy spirit was about to depart, in response to the questions of her daughters: "Mother, is your faith yet strong," she answered, "Oh, yes, stronger than ever. He is a wall of fire about me and blessed angels are in my room to take me to him." Her life was all devoted and she saw in religion only a lofty view of life and the bright shores of another world. The Bible was her chart and she allowed no skepticism to chill her soul, and when death came in the strength and joyousness of living faith and perfect hope she could
"Hail the heavenly scene of peace, Where the storms of sorrow cease; Life's harassing struggle o'er, Wearied nature weeps to rest." And passing away in all the beautiful perfection of a ripe old age it can be well said of Grandmother Thompson, "Well done good and faithful servant," and the living who knew and loved her can see in her life an example worthy of all imitation and that beautiful faith which makes mortality step aside to disclose the pearly gates of endless life.

year.
Bob Mills was home from Lorain to
spend New Years with his mother.
George Preston, of Oberlin, spent New
Years with his parents.
D. W. Davis started for Texas last week
with a car load of young Hereford cattle.
Will be gone some weeks.
There are some changes occurring in
the ownership of real estate in town, but I am not sufficiently posted to announce the particulars at present.
Harry Gillett is moving about in the
mud with his traction engine and feed
cutter, saving horse flesh and horse feed,
which is a very good thing to do. M.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.
For a spring medicine and blood-purifier, Arthro-phos-a cannot be equaled.

ROCHESTER.
January 7, '89.
J. F. Skees, Esq., our boss fancy poultry man, just unfolded a package consisting
of an elegant gold-lined silver cup and
three fine bronze and gilt medals awarded
him for the finest display of pheasants and other fancy fowls at the Cleveland poultry
show.
Frank Dagnan, Esq., has advertised a kance at the Hotel De Hackett on the 24th proximo. We are glad to see Frank doing a prosperous business in his new venture.
Dr. T. S. Field has filed an action before Esquire Phelps vs. Newell Knapp for a bill for professional services aggregating $38.
D. Seger, Esq., is visiting Mr. James
Horton, of Cleveland. Dorsey Rowland
has been engaged by Mr. Horton for his dairy the coming year.
Ladies Baptist Societies meets with Mrs. C. Myers, Thursday this week. All invited.
The election of officers M. E. Sunday-
School resulted: M. Goss, Superintendent and Choirster; J. P. Butson, Treasurer; Lew Fisher, Clerk; Clayton Chapman, Librarian; Angie Dyer, Organist.
Reported that Messrs. Horr, Warner &
Co., have absorbed the Wright factory.
"One by one the roses fade."
Rev. F. E. Kenyon has been engaged to fill the Baptist pulpit until next April.

PITTSFIELD.
January 7, 1889.
The oyster supper and entertainment at the town hall on New Years eve, was,
notwithstanding a dark night and bad
roads, very well attended. The exercises consisting of songs, music, recitation and
tableaux were well received and gave general satisfaction. The program was
not fully carried out, owing to lack of
time, but I suppose what was left out,
will be on hand at some time. Net proceeds about $37. Some of the party staid
